ED HART
Artist

Raised in California, Ed graduated from Long Beach State in Art and received a Master's of Fine Arts in Education from Chapman University.

Ed devotes his time to sculpture, working in either wood or fiberglass. The fiberglass is placed over forms and shapes with wire and steel. The forms are usually people that express the feeling of life. Parts of the body may be eliminated, exaggerated or placed in a whimsical way to make those feelings felt to the viewer.

In working in wood, Ed tries to capture the abstract figurative shapes that flow like movement of a dancer or family relationships. From a sketch, he draws that shape on plywood, cut it out and laminate other pieces of plywood and a variety of hardwoods for the desired thickness. A variety of hardwoods are selected for their colors, grains and patterns. I strive to make shapes that are aesthetically pleasing and enhance the beauty of wood.
