LOIS MARIE STAPLES
Artist

Lois Marie Staples was born in Topeka, Kansas but she is currently living in St Louis Missouri. From the time she was a small child she had a love of art and painting.

In the year 1982 Lois Marie quit a job working for the Justice Department just so she could go into fine art. She can paint in many mediums, including china painting and she loves to paint many different subject matters.

In 1989, Lois Marie began training with Jack Revis who was the associate of Norman Rockwell. She went on to teach art herself.

Her work has been sold in many galleries and art expositions and in the year 2004 she began expanding her name into international markets.

“Happiest with a paint brush in my hand. You know the story: drew on the wall when I was three... I have been painting and teaching more years than I dare add up. Don’t have any degrees to tell you about, but sure seem to have that under current of burning desire to be creative.”
